2 Issuing Dormitory Fee/Tuition Invoice

The Dormitory Fee/Tuition invoice will be issued in early June.

No	Category	Amount	Remark
1	Registration Fee	USD 100
2	Medical Insurance Fee	USD 50	DB Insurance (Private Insurance)
3	Dormitory Fee	USD 750	1 Semester
4	Dormitory Meal Plan (5 days a week)	USD 850	Optional
	Dormitory Meal Plan (6 days a week)	USD 950	Optional
5	Bank Transaction Fee	USD 50

- ※ Each listed fee may vary slightly within a minor range.
- ※ DB Insurance: NHI coverage starts about 1–2 months after arrival, so the University provides temporary private insurance until then.

3 Issuing Admission Certificate

After verifying the fees are paid, certificate of admission will be sent to the student & coordinator via email.

4 Application for VISA

Visit the Korean Embassy or Consulate homepage in your home country to find information on how to apply for the study visa.

The expected timeline for visa issuance will depend on each individual country.

On the Korean Embassy or Consulate's homepage, the expected time frame for visa issuance will be listed.

Please be sure to prepare the required documents and apply for the visa early to ensure your arrival on time. If you do not apply for a visa within a month after the admission certificate issuance date, the embassy will not accept your visa application

- Exchange Student: D-2-6
- Double-degree Student: D-2-2

5 Moving in Dormitory

If you send us a schedule of your arrival time, there will be a guide to help you move in the dormitory. Information about the dormitories can be found at the site below.

6 Attending Orientation for International Students

International students are required to attend the orientation that will occur at the end of August. It will be held over two days, conducted separately in Korean and English.

7 Schedule

Nomination & Application	~ April 15 th
Admission Result Announcement	Early May
Visa Process	Mid June
Semester	September 1 st ~ December 18 th

8 Korean Language Class

Exchange students with a Beginner level of Korean language proficiency (TOPIK Level 1-2) can take the Korean language courses offered by UOU KLC (Korean Language Center) for free.

※ Please note that an exchange student is required to take at least 6 credits of academic courses. Korean language courses offered by UOU KLC do not fall under the category of academic courses.

9 National Health Insurance

Upon their arrival in Korea, all exchange students are mandated to undergo the alien registration process. This step is typically completed by mid-October, and upon its conclusion, students are seamlessly enrolled in the mandatory national health insurance scheme (about 80 USD per month).

However, between their entry and their inclusion in the national health insurance, students are required to avail the DB insurance for approximately two months, incurring a cost of around 50 USD.
