e. Educational philosophy

The educational philosophy of SEE is "Study in parallel with Practice". Theoretical lectures are in conjunction with experimental/exercise activities. The Learner-Centered approach is adopted. The students are introduced to the program learning outcomes, course objectives, and are encouraged to participate in research activities of SEE, as well as to practice the real working environment.